Frequently Asked Questions

1. Which business license application do I fill out?

- If your business is based out of a Dublin residence, complete the Home Occupation business license application. If your business is based out of a commercial tenant space in Dublin, complete the Commercial business license application. If your business is based out of a home or commercial space outside the City of Dublin, complete the Outside City business license application.

2. How long does it take to get a business license?

- After submitting a complete business license application, including payment, it takes approximately six to eight weeks to process. Outside City business license applications are approved the same day. Once approved, a business license certificate will be mailed to the mailing address provided.

3. Do I need a solicitor's/peddler's permit?

- Per City Ordinance, if you are traveling by foot, car or any other type of conveyance, place to place or house to house to sell or convey a product, you must register with Dublin Police Services for a solicitor's/peddler's permit. Then you can apply for a business license.

4. Can I use my business license to do business in another city?

- Your Dublin business license is for business operations in the City of Dublin only. If you plan to do business in another city, contact that city for licensing requirements.

5. How do I renew my business license?

- Renewal invoices are mailed late August of each year. Renewal invoices may be paid in person by cash, check or credit card. Renewals may be paid by mail via check. Checks should be made payable to City of Dublin. Renewal invoices may also be eligible to pay online by credit card. Instructions will be included on your renewal invoice, if this option is available to you. Renewals are to be paid no later than October 30th. Renewals paid after October 30 are subject to a penalty fee.

6. Should I throw away an expired business license certificate?

- The City mails the original business license certificate and does not keep a copy. You will need your certificate if you want to buy real estate or obtain a loan. The certificate will give evidence of conducting business in Dublin.

7. Can I get a duplicate copy of my current business license certificate?

- A hard copy of your current business license certificate is available for a five dollar ($5) fee or for free by email.

8. Do I need to notify the City if I make changes to my business?

- If your business moves to another location and you are still conducting business in Dublin, you must submit a new application form and pay a prorated fee based upon the date your business relocated within Dublin. If your business relocated outside of Dublin, submit an Outside City business license application. A five dollar ($5) fee will be collected to process a new business license certificate.
- If you are no longer conducting business in Dublin, send or email a letter to close out your business license.
- If your business changed ownership, submit a new application along with proof of new ownership. A five dollar ($5) fee will be collected to process a new business license certificate.
- If your business name changes, submit a new application. A five dollar ($5) fee will be collected to process a new business license certificate.

9. How can I find out if a business has a current Dublin business license?

- Contact the Community Development Department with the business name and address in question.

10. Can I obtain a listing of businesses in Dublin?

- A business license report is available for a fifteen dollar ($15) fee, payable at the time of request. Please allow a minimum of one business day to provide the report. The report will include a business name, business phone number and contact name of the Commercial business in Dublin. In accordance with state law, the City is not authorized to provide certain information about a business, including the owner's home address and phone number. You may also view new businesses on the City's website at www.dublin.ca.gov/businesslicense/application. See Related Resources>New Business Report.
